5. President – Bill Fogel
 - a. Held discussion on Raffle Tickets – The Bike for the Spring Flood Run will be a 2020 Indian FTR 1200
 - b. Dana Anderson would like to have 2 different charities vs just one for the year.
 - c. We will stick with Soldier's 6 and other possible charities that would be brought up to the table (ex. Schools. Bands, College, etc)
 - d. Raffle Tickets are to be signed out and encouraged to sell as many as possible
 - e. Donnie Smith Show – We will not be using Ernie's bike. We will be putting the raffle FTR on display to show people the bike that they can win with their raffle ticket. Bill will be talking with Dana and Karen to make that happen
 - f. You may volunteer for the Donnie Smith show but there is no pressure to do so
 - g. 4 wrist bands will be at our booth – you may use a wrist band to see the show while you volunteer
 - h. Both Bill and Levi will be present all weekend to set up and work the booth for the Donnie Smith show
 - i. Ryan from RVS has offered to let us use his booth as well
 - j. Bill introduced the newest member of the Executive Board – Martha Kopp
 - k. Bill spoke with Doug from Bison on ways to sell more raffle tickets – very little were sold last year through Bison
 - l. Printing costs for the Flood Run Raffle Tickets were paid for by IARGMN. This allows us to ensure that 100% of the funds raised by the raffle goes to the charity of choice
 - m. Karen will have a booth at the Flood Run to sell merchandise as well
 - n. Bill stated that both Carrie and himself will not run again when term expires. Sally also announced that she will not run when her term expires
